Ordinance Approved.

The ordinance recently passed by the Councils prohibiting the running of automobiles, locomobiles, mortorcycles, wagons and carts on the race track at the West End Park, has been approved by the Mayor. This ordinance is designed to protect the track, which is one of the fluest in the South. The funeral of the late Joseph L. Carter, a veteran of the Mexican, and confederate Wars, tooks passe this action, the services being conducted at the grave. A. P. Hill Camp, of all the manners of the Wirginia Theatre, has resigned to accept another position.
